

CONCERTS FOR SCHOOLCHILDREN

The Life & Times of Beethoven

Featuring Really Inventive Stuff

WHEN

Wednesday, May 6, 2020 | 10 AM or 11:30 AM

Thursday, May 7, 2020 | 10 AM or 11:30 AM

PROGRAM LENGTH

55 to 60 minutes

PRICE

$8 per student

1 free adult for every 10 students

$10 for each additional adult

Professor Nigel Taproot, the affable and learned classical music aficionado, invites you to an enlightening introduction to Beethoven's musical genius. This original Really Inventive Stuff program celebrates Beethoven, his remarkable age, and four famous notes. Featuring the music of Beethoven's Symphony No. 5 with a playful peppering of fascinating facts and trivia.

Free admission and bus transportation funding for Title I Schools — first come, first served. Call for more details.

ADDRESS

Maryland Hall
801 Chase Street
Annapolis, MD 21401

CONTACT US

edelisle@annapolissymphony.org
dcostellomays@annapolissymphony.org

RESERVE YOUR SPOT TODAY!

Call the Symphony Box Office at 410-263-0907 to make a reservation—
space is limited!